MN5001 Contemporary Global Issues in Management
SCOTCAT Credits:	20	SCQF Level 11	Semester:	1
Availability restrictions:	Not available as an optional module for any programme.
Planned timetable:	To be arranged.
This module is aimed at creating a deep and wide appreciation of how various global trends will impact upon economies, organisations and from there, the practice of management. In particular, the way in which ecological, social and economic factors interact to create threats and possibilities for organisations will be addressed. Moreover, the varying ways in which these aspects manifest themselves in different parts of the globe will be elucidated in order to ensure that all students have an appreciation of both how their own and other countries might be affected by various trends. Finally, students will also be supported to make the link between these issues and how they manifest themselves in their chosen area of study.
Programme module type:	Compulsory for the Human Resource Management, International Business, Marketing and International Business and Strategy (Moscow State) Postgraduate Programmes and for the Management Studies MRes Programme.
Learning and teaching methods and delivery:	Weekly contact: 2 lectures and 1 seminar.

MN5002 Contemporary Conceptual Issues in Management
SCOTCAT Credits:	20	SCQF Level 11	Semester:	2
Availability restrictions:	Not available as an optional module for any programme.
Planned timetable:	To be arranged.
This module develops students' prior understanding of management and develops a deep understanding of core conceptual challenges in organisations. Using critical case-based exploration and extensive discussion the module explores such basic yet deep questions as: What are organisations? Can organisations be managed, and what do managers actually do? How do we know what we know? Where does innovation come from? What are skills, knowledge and understanding? What is responsible enterprise? Why are organisations structured the way they are? How do personality, power and politics impact on organisational life? As these and similar questions are addressed, students will be encouraged to reflect and draw upon their own experiences of organisational life as issues are analysed, challenged, researched, evaluated and assessed.
Programme module type:	Compulsory for the International Business, and Marketing Postgraduate Programmes and for the Management Studies MRes Programme.
