Also WIYA - means the degree is available with or without an Integrated Year Abroad

Title - means this is the official title which will be on all University records and documents. If the field is blank, the name is descriptive only and will not appear as the title of a degree on transcripts, diplomas etc.

<sup>E</sup> – Where first-level Russian modules clash with EN1003 and/or EN1004 then CO1001 and/or CO1002 should be taken instead.

<sup>T</sup> – Timetable clash exists and this combination is subject to the agreement of the Chair of the Department or Head of School concerned.

<sup>G</sup> – This combination is only available to non-beginners in German due to a timetable clash.

<sup>M</sup> – This combination is also available including a second language, see under Modern Languages.

<sup>X</sup> – Due to a timetable clash, students taking this degree will take Ancient History, Latin or Greek modules in their first year and Classical Studies in their second. Contact the School of Classics for further information.

Also WIYA - means the degree is available with or without an Integrated Year Abroad

Title - means this is the official title which will be on all University records and documents. If the field is blank, the name is descriptive only and will not appear as the title of a degree on transcripts, diplomas etc.

<sup>E</sup> – Where first-level Russian modules clash with EN1003 and/or EN1004 then CO1001 and/or CO1002 should be taken instead.

<sup>T</sup> – Timetable clash exists and this combination is subject to the agreement of the Chair of the Department or Head of School concerned.

<sup>M</sup> – This combination is also available including a second language, see under Modern Languages.

<sup>X</sup> – Due to a timetable clash, students taking this degree will take Ancient History, Latin or Greek modules in their first year and Classical Studies in their second. Contact the School of Classics for further information.

Also WIYA - means the degree is available with or without an Integrated Year Abroad

Title - means this is the official title which will be on all University records and documents. If the field is blank, the name is descriptive only and will not appear as the title of a degree on transcripts, diplomas etc.

<sup>E</sup> - Where first-level Russian modules clash with EN1003 and/or EN1004 then CO1001 and/or CO1002 should be taken instead.

<sup>T</sup> - Timetable clash exists and this combination is subject to the agreement of the Chair of the Department or Head of School concerned.

<sup>M</sup> - This combination is also available including a second language, see under Modern Languages.
