PR3020 Key Texts in Modern Persian Literature
SCOTCAT Credits:	15	SCQF Level 9	Semester:	1
Academic year:	2016/7
Planned timetable:	To be arranged.
Students will learn about key twentieth-century authors through reading biographies and critical writing in Persian and English. They will also read, translate and discuss at least one sample of writing by each of these authors. The module is primarily designed to expose students to modern poetry and short stories and to improve and broaden students' knowledge of literary analysis in general and Persian literature and culture in particular. Students will be required to translate Persian poetry and prose passages into English and analyse them. This module will also address the sociopolitical contexts in which these literary works were produced.
Programme module type:	Optional for Persian

PR3021 Modern Iran through Cinema
SCOTCAT Credits:	15	SCQF Level 9	Semester:	2
Academic year:	2016/7
Planned timetable:	To be arranged.
This module introduces students to the study of cinema as a mode of representation of social history by offering a social overview of cinema in Iran since the 1960s. Looking at films as a mirror reflecting the society, this module will offer a chronological history of Iranian cinema while also addressing changes in Iranian society. Students will be given a reading list to complement the lectures, the contents of which will provide a basis for seminar discussions. There will be one film screening per week accompanying the lectures and students will be encouraged to develop their own critical approach through seminars and discussions. No knowledge of Persian is required for this module, but students with a knowledge of Persian will be given access to Persian language material where appropriate.
