

Rwandan Stories of Change presents

SOCCER MY SAVIOUR

Film screening and Q+A
with Eric Murangwa and Kyri Evangelou

Saturday 28th January 7 - 8.30pm
The Byre Theatre, St Andrews

This is the story of Eric Eugene Murangwa, a soccer player who, since surviving the 1994 genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda, has dedicated his life to promoting peace and reconciliation through the sport that saved his life. Eric recounts the special relationship he shared with his teammates, a bond that withstood the horrors of one of the worst atrocities in human history.
